A pig shape and a dream...

In 1989 Ann Clark set out with a pig-shaped Christmas ornament and a dream. By 1991 she had tackled her first trade show and Ann Clark, the person, became Ann Clark, Ltd., the company.

Twenty-five years later we are the largest manufacturer of cookie cutters in the United States. Today Ann is still painting the colorful watercolors seen on the Traditional recipe cards.

Our new cookie cutter manufacturing facility at 453 Quality Lane in Rutland, Vermont.

AMERICA'S LARGEST COOKIE CUTTER MANUFACTURER

We take pride in making high quality cookie cutters that are competitively priced and made with materials purchased from U.S. suppliers. We make and stock more than 650 of the most popular shapes offered by importers. We can also make to order 1,600 additional shapes.

Our home state of Vermont.

Our family-owned company, launched 27 years ago, is now the largest cookie cutter manufacturer in America. We continue to improve our production process with upgraded technology and lean manufacturing principles to give you an easy choice to buy cookie cutters “Made in the USA.”

Last year we made a big improvement, moving to a new facility located in Rutland, Vermont. Our new building (just up the road from our previous location) is a 16,300-square-foot light-industrial steel frame building, constructed in 1982 as a bakery and warehouse for Keebler. Ann Clark, Ltd. took possession of the building in early December 2014 and employees immediately went to work to clean, paint, and remodel.

The building includes some 2,000 square feet of office space and an employee break room. The production floor space is ideally suited for cookie cutter manufacturing and is split evenly between the production and assembly floor and the warehouse and shipping area.

FAMILY OWNED & OPERATED SINCE 1989

Family owned and operated since 1989, Ann Clark, The American Cookie Cutter Co. (The Cookie Cutter People from Vermont) has grown from a small gift company to the largest manufacturer of cookie cutters in America.

Soon after its launch the company became a family affair. Very supportive from the outset, Ann's late husband John became Vice President in 1996. That same year her late son, John Jr., served as a key player when he moved back to Vermont and daughter Elizabeth joined up as Sales Manager. She has since moved on to other endeavors. Ann's son Ben came on board in 1998 and is now the company's CEO. Grandchildren Margaret, Rebecca, and Alistair can be seen in company catalogs and also lend their services as cookie makers, tasters, and decorators.
